December, 2006 News from CareNow

Happy Holidays from CareNow! It has been an amazing year for us, capped off by our recent trip to South Africa and Zambia. I can tell you, as a first time visitor to Africa, the sights, sounds, and overall experiences are permanently stamped in my mind and on my heart. While it's true the situation is devastating, there is so much hope being spread by countless people all striving for the same result – a transformed continent.

We are pleased to report the clinic located in Mophela, South Africa is well on its way to completion, and we are actively preparing to assist in providing funding for personnel, supplies, and equipment. Also while in South Africa, we met future beneficiaries of funding, and I'll be telling you more about them in the months to come.

In Zambia, we had an opportunity to visit with Action Zambia and to see how our funding is being put to use. Through our support, supplies have been purchased, educational materials have been prepared, and targeted communities have been identified to receive education and care from a mobile clinic, one nurse, and a midwife. Make sure to check our website later this month to see pictures from the trip.

Surfers for CareNow

Did you know you and your families, friends, and associates can help raise money for CareNow by doing nothing more than searching the internet? We are proud to be an approved charity with GoodSearch, a Yahoo-powered search engine providing 50% of advertising revenue to charities that users choose. Here's how you can start surfing your way to African relief:

1. Log on to www.goodsearch.com
2. Enter "CareNow Foundation" in the "Who do you GoodSearch for?"
3. Click on the "Verify" button to confirm CareNow's entry
4. Click on the link to download the GoodSearch toolbar for IE, Firefox, or Safari browsers
5. Make sure to choose the GoodSearch engine before
